Forward-Looking Statements

This release contains forward-looking statements within the meaning of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995, as amended, including, without limitation, statements regarding beliefs about and expectation for the restructuring plan described in this release, including associated costs, cost savings and timing, as well as our beliefs about the next generation red blood cell platform, including that it will potentially improve upon the existing benefits of the RED PLATFORM, and its potential for greater efficacy and enhanced versatility. The words “may,” “will,” “could,” “would,” “should,” “expect,” “plan,” “anticipate,” “intend,” “believe,” “estimate,” “predict,” “project,” “potential,” “continue,” “target” and similar expressions are intended to identify forward-looking statements, although not all forward-looking statements contain these identifying words. Any forward-looking statements in this release are based on management’s current expectations and beliefs and are subject to a number of risks, uncertainties and important factors that may cause actual events or results to differ materially from those expressed or implied by any forward-looking statements contained in this release, including, without limitation, risks related to the substantial doubt about our ability to continue as a going concern given that we currently do not have adequate financial resources to fund our forecasted operating costs for at least 12 months; our ability to execute on and realize the expected benefits of the restructuring plan described in this release; the amount of debt we have outstanding and the lender’s rights under our loan facility, including the lender’s ability to accelerate amounts outstanding under the loan facility, or exert control over our cash accounts in connection with certain events of default, including a material adverse change in our business; our ability to pursue and secure financing to fund our operations; our ability to maintain our listing on the Nasdaq Stock Market, particularly in light of our recently disclosed deficiencies; those risks and uncertainties related to the development of the our Red Cell Therapeutic product candidates and their therapeutic potential; risks related to our ability to execute on our plans and expectations and our analyses of clinical and preclinical data; and other risks identified in our filings with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC), including our Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the quarter-ended June 30, 2022 and subsequent filings with the SEC. We caution you not to place undue reliance on any forward-looking statements, which speak only as of the date they are made. We disclaim any obligation to publicly update or revise any such statements to reflect any change in expectations or in events, conditions or circumstances on which any such statements may be based, or that may affect the likelihood that actual results will differ from those set forth in the forward-looking statements. Any forward-looking statements contained in this release represent our views only as of the date hereof and should not be relied upon as representing its views as of any subsequent date.
